Burk & Co.'s Great Removal Sale

MONEY-SAVING OPPORTUNITIES THAT ARE ASSURED AND ABSOLUTE

Throngs of wide-awake economists fairly flooded our establishment all week and their enthusiastic buying clearly demonstrates how grand, extraordinary and surprising the bargain opportunities afforded actually are. It was a mighty demonstration of public confidence, public belief, public faith in this dependable store, its methods, its merchandise, its announcements.

We must move by the middle of August. The time is short and the matter urgent. Never before in the history of merchandising has the public of Richmond been afforded the opportunity of buying standard, high-class merchandise, such as we manufacture and retail exclusively through our own chain of six big stores, at such a sacrifice.

Absolutely not a single dollar's worth of questionable merchandise in our entire establishment, nor do we use catch-penny, deceiving methods of advertising to trap the unwary. Straightforward, legitimate methods only are tolerated in the Burk establishments. Every article advertised is here as defined, and there is nothing exempted in this sale excepting Manhattan Shirts and Earl & Wilson and Arrow Brand Collars, on which we are obligated by contract not to break prices. Otherwise, everything is sacrificed, regardless of character or kind. Bring this advertisement with you. Point out what you want. If not advertised, ask for it. No goods sent out on memorandum; no goods charged during this sale.

...News of Manchester...

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 112 Hull Street.
It had been expected that the ordinance which provides for the granting of a franchise to the Seaboard Air Line Railroad, which would give it the privilege of running tracks along Sixth Street from the main line of the road to Forter Street, would come up tonight at the regular session of the City Assembly, but it is now more probable that the matter will not be brought up at to-night's meeting.
When the ordinance was before the Assembly recently it was ruled by City Attorney Page that the ordinance would require a three-fourths vote for its passage. This makes it necessary for nine out of the twelve members of the City Assembly to vote favorably upon the measure.

Two members of the City Assembly, it is known, will not be present at to-night's meeting, and it is more than probable that several other members of that body will go to Buckroe Beach on the excursion which will be run this morning by Decatur Street M. E. Sunday-School. In view of these facts, it is highly probable that the entire matter will go over until another meeting of the Assembly.

Mr. Owens Will Not Stand.
W. H. Owens, of Second Ward, who has been on the City School Board for a number of years, will not stand for re-election. It is understood that he will give the joint session of the Council, which is to be held to-night, notice to that effect. All of the members of the School Board will have to be elected to-night, but Mr. Owens is the only one who has thus far decided not to stand for re-election.

Up to this time no one has been mentioned as an aspirant for the position, to succeed Mr. Owens.
Jones Not a Candidate.
City Assemblyman C. C. Jones, when seen last night, stated positively that he was not a candidate for the position of Police Commissioner from First Ward. This position will be filled to-night.
Mr. Jones said that it had been customary in First Ward to elect the old member of the delegation to the Police Board. A. R. Hooker has been

In the Council longer than any other member, and following the precedent, he will be the man to succeed J. E. Rudd on the Board of Police Commissioners. Mr. Bailey, who is the newest member of the Council from Funeral of Mrs. Davis.

The funeral of Mrs. Adeline Davis who died at her residence on East Fourth Street Wednesday night, will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock from Stockton Street Baptist Church. The interment will be made in Maury Cemetery. The pallbearers will be: Honorary—James A. Lipscomb and J. H. Johnson. Active—S. R. Owens, H. A. Maurice, B. A. Nunnally, B. M. Robertson, J. E. Davidson, L. P. Cleary, Alexander Eastwood and M. Z. Percival.

City Treasurer J. W. Brownough is again ill at his home, on Forter Street. Mr. Brownough was sick last week and returned to his office before he had fully recovered. It will now be some days before he will be able to be about. Henderson Lodge of Odd-Fellows held its regular meeting last night, which was largely attended.

The Board of Directors of the Manchester and Chesterfield Business Men's Association will hold its regular meeting this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.
Mrs. Albert Mayo, of Petersburg, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Thornton, near Fourteenth and Forter Streets.
Cowardin Avenue Sunday school will hold its annual picnic at Buckroe Beach, July 23. The train will leave the Southern Depot, Manchester, at 8 o'clock, and will return to the same depot at 3:30 P. M. All of the orphan children of Bethany Home will go on this trip.

PLUNGING INTO SURF, PRIEST IS SEEN NO MORE

Rev. Father Dowling, of Sacred Heart Church, is Victim of Waters at Cape Henry—His Body is Recovered.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, VA., July 8.—Rev. Father Dowling, assistant pastor of the Sacred Heart Catholic Church, was drowned this afternoon while bathing in the surf at Cape Henry. Father Dowling was with a party at the beach, and early after dinner they decided to go into the surf. Father Dowling was first to get into a bathing suit, and, ahead of his party several minutes, plunged into the surf. It was the last seen of him alive. There was no outcry and no witness to the drowning.

When the party came out and failed to see the priest, they returned to his dressing-room. Not finding him, a search was instituted and an alarm given. Ten minutes later his body was found in the surf by one of the life-savers. Life was extinct, and this, despite the fact that the body was in only waist-deep water. Physicians worked in vain to restore life.
It is believed that Father Dowling succumbed to heart failure or acute indigestion upon entering the water and was drowned. He was a good swimmer and accustomed to the surf. Rev. Father Dowling came to this country several years ago from Ireland, shortly after being ordained to the priesthood, and was doing excellent work in the Sacred Heart parish, where he was held in high esteem.
The verdict of the coroner's jury investigating the case was accidental drowning, and that it was caused by heart failure. It was also developed that two children in the party with Father Dowling were on the beach. He was sporting in the surf only a short distance out, and one of the children saw him go under, but thought he was diving. Not until he was found to be missing a few minutes later were the adults in the party informed. Even then it was thought he had returned to the bathhouse. The real alarm was sounded when he was found not to be in the bathhouse, and the child had told of seeing him dive beneath the water, as she thought. The tragedy has thrown a gloom over the two Catholic parishes of the city. Father Dowling being popular with everybody.
